

Gordon & MacPhail

CONNOISSEURS CHOICE RANGE

This is a brand of unusual single malt whiskies, distinguished by their labels, which indicate the region from which they come. Many of these whiskies are only available under the Connoisseurs Choice range.

GLENCADAM 1987 40%

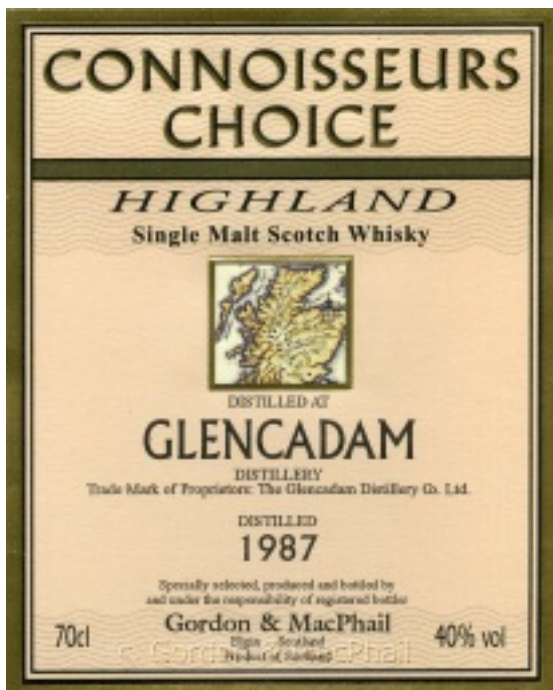

Region: Eastern Highlands.
Brechin.
Founded: 1825.
Water Source: Moorfoot Loch.
Owner: Angus Dundee Distillers.
Status: Operational.

Notes:

Inland from the east coast of Scotland is the ancient market town of Brechin which boasts two distilleries, Glencadam and North Port. The former was built in 1895 and extensively modernised in the 1950s.

Most of its production goes for blending and used for Ballantines & Cream of the Barley.

The distillery has no reception centre but visitors are welcome by appointment.

TASTING NOTE

Colour: Yellow gold.

Without water

Nose: Sweet and herbal - spearmint.

Palate: Spices, roasted cereal.

With water

Nose: Perfumed with herbal notes - geraniums, a slight medicinal edge.

Palate: Roasted, touch of oak, drying - white pepper.

Body: Medium.

Finish: Drying.

Cask Type: Refill Bourbon Barrels.

Whisky Style: A lighter Highland Malt, subtle smoky character.

OTHER BOTTLINGS AVAILABLE

Connoisseurs Choice Distilled 1974 43%